Dj Rude Ferguson has a passion for music and that's why he loves this business so much. "I have always loved every kind of music," he tells us, "and this career gives me the opportunity to be around music all day. I can bring joy to people through the music and through my personality and that is incredible!" Originally from Washington DC, Rude got into the music biz at only 12 playing drums and singing back up vocals with Gospel Bands. Rude says "My passion for music not only allowed me to feel the entertainment side of the music business but it also allowed me to become a DJ. Rude has been doing what he loves for over 20 years and it shows!!! As a DJ and Emcee Rude has High Energy skills and knows how to "Read The Crowd" to keep a party alive and the dance floor full! Rude is a favorite at weddings and is also highly requested for Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, School Dances, Corporate Events and Sweet Sixteen's
