After arriving to Chicago from New York in the early 80's, Mac was influenced by the DJ's of the Chicago House scene Frankie Knuckles, Ron Hardy, and Farley Jackmaster Funk. Mac Vaughn first graced the tables in 1986 playing local underground parties and within several years he opened for Steve "Silk" Hurley another Chicago House legend. Co-founding Move Your Body Productions in the mid 90's with brother Derrick Devonte. He continued to develop his style keeping his sound close to his Chi Town roots.

Introduced to Ron Carroll in 1999, which lead him to the afterhours camp. Whose members were Ron Carroll, Mazi, Joshua Collins, Rick Garcia, and Spero. After a few years with the after-hours camp he learned the art of production and became a weekly feature on the Chicago House radio "THE MAC DIESEL DEEP HOUSE SHOW" the number one house music show in Chicago at that time. In 2002, MAC Vaughn won the PRIMAL SOUNDS DJ COMPETITION in Manchester, England and after that hosted his own mix show until 2004 with partner Kenny Jordan on DTX-FM U.K. In late 2003 Mac was the first DJ to play in "DJ'S AROUND THE WORLD" at CLUB 18 KARAT in Bochum, Germany. In early 2005, Mac was voted in the top ten of 50 mix shows on club radio network in Los Angeles as well as winning mixer of the month on Trugrooves in London. In the same year voted #2 out of 10 in DJ SETS TO VOCAL HOUSE MIXER IN GREECE. In 2006 Mac started ONLY FRANK SOUL along with Walter Steff, Sam and JO DE Presser which features weekly parties in Chicago @ the Urban Playground. In early 2007 Mac hooked up with Fernando Vincent, Charles Morris and ... BANG'N BROTHERS MUSIC was born.
