Hello!

I am a Singer-Song Writer and have many songs.

I like all kinds of music and can write in many styles although I have my own unique style that I feel will be breaking through to the wild internet world soon!

Check my music and let me know what you think, I have a ton of material and continue to write new songs with great hooks and melody lines.

I also do parts for some Musicians and will do a musical part for your song but I have to like what you are doing and I have to know I can do a great part for your song. If I can't, I will decline.
