Dave Diamonds career in music spans more than twenty years. A prolific singer/songwriter and session musician, Dave has recorded and performed as a solo artist, as well as with his own band, Pozzy Ghuru, and with other artists including BlowUpHollywood, Shannon McNally, members of the Allman Brothers and The Meters, Dispatch, and with Donna Jean & the Tricksters, Alan Semerdjian, The Jason Crosby Band, Zen Tricksters and others. A drummer first, Dave is a creative and versatile musician, being equally at home on guitar, bass and keyboards. When not in the studio producing the work of new artists, you can find Dave playing multi-layered textures on drums/percussion with indie singer/songwriters as well as playing free-form jazz/funk/experimental gigs with "pozzzyghuru" and The Jason Crosby Band (of Robert Randolph and the Family Band), Donna Jean & the Tricksters. Also performing some solo acoustic performances with his voice and guitar and some organic loop station based beats. Dave has earned praise for his work in several leading industry publications, including Modern Drummer and Drum!
