Julian is from the city of brotherly love, Philadelphia. Raised by his mother and the streets, Julian comes equipped with three types of education. The first being his knowledge of the church then comes the book smarts, and last, but not least, The STREETS. Julian has headed his peers in numerous talent shows throughout the city. He's recorded with a number of local artists with intentions on unifying them through music. Embrace wealth, embrace new beginnings, embrace THA DON.
