ROCKSTARR DJ KayPlaya, What can be said about this guy that hasn't been said already?! Considered by many to be the life of the party among a crew of DJ's that are collectively also known as the life of the party. His professional career as a DJ began in 2002 as a DJ for Club Seven after the success of a private college party evolved into a residency for the weekly Hot 19 event, the Las Vegas strips' only place to party for college students 19 & up. He originates from Southern California making the move to Las Vegas after being accepted to UNLV where he received he studied Entertainment & Event Management under the universities nationally top-rated Hotel College.

As a member of ROCKSTARR DJz KayPlaya's focus has been in the area of creating promotional mixtapes for upcoming artists as well as producing remixes of popular club hits. Although his focus is primarily on the business side nothing can match the excitement KayPlaya feels when he's DJing in front of a packed club or when DJ's are using his remixes to take the crowd to the next level. Stay tuned for more of the "Get ACTIVE" series of mixtapes to satisfy your needs of new music and make sure you check back here to listen to some of his exclusive remixes!
