Born and raised in Chicago, Illinois, Ron "DJ R-Cue-Tech" Alexander would watch the neighborhood DJ's rock blockclub and basement parties. He saw how the DJ's would be the gods of the parties. DJ heroes like Demick Grey and Darryl Stingly would spin records and do tricks that would amaze the crowd. Ron wanted that. A friend, DJ Daryl Thomas, would let him practice on Saturday mornings. Soon after he became the new DJ on the block joining forces with cousin Patrick Thompson. Today DJ R-Cue-Tech is a music producer starting Q2 productionz and has become the preferred DJ for high-end department store Carson Pirie Scott at Chicago's Ford City mall. DJ R-Cue-Tech is the most requested DJ for fragrance vendors of Ralph Lauren Polo, Emporio Armani, Sean John, Rocawear and the list goes on. Other clients includes C.A.R.O. the Chicago Public Schools and many wedding and receptions venues.
