

Brian Avenue

For additional information please contact us
©2018 New Music Promote

Name is Brian Avenue. Brian was introduced to house music at the age of 14 when his older sister brought him to his first rave. It was the moment he walked into the door that Brian Decided he wanted to be the one who made everyone dance.

A few weeks later he got his first fake I.D. and began to go to clubs all over the Chicagoland Area. After three years of saving his money and meeting new people and DJ's, he finally had enough money to get his first set of Stanton Turntables and started to spin right away.

Two years and countless hours later, Brian is emerging onto the club scene spinning at numerous places around Chicago and the suburbs.

Brian Avenue is definitely a driving force in house music. So watch out for

Visit our profile at:
New Music Promote

